Changed His Mind.

The present Laird of Skibo some years pade of one of his kin: There is not a male of the name of Carnegie fit for ish-balt."

Two years ago Uncle Andrew decided, however, that there was good timber in his nephew Coleman, probably the most harum-scarum and devil-may-care one of the young Carnegie brothers. "If Coley will straighten up." Andrew Carnegie announced, "I will take him to Scotland and make a real laird of the boy."

years ago has been piking along up an income of $125,000 a year. He is lean-faced, small-sized young chap wi erect shoulders—a frame which in cage, with the addition of a white bear age, with the addition of a white beard, would favor the appearance of Andrew Carnegie himself.

Young Carnegie was the favorite brother of Nancy Carnegie, who married the coachman James Hever. His mother, Mrs. Lucy Carnegie, a woman of great personal wealth, was greatly opposed to this marriage, while her brother-in-law, the great Andrew, with his keen sense of humor, declared that he was glad his niece had married a "moral workingman rather than a worthless duke."

Has Braced Up. "Uncla Andrew is all right," arked "Coley" when told of his

"Coley" Carnegie, youngest son of the Billy Thaw of William Carnegie in the late Thomas Carnegie and nephew of Cafe of the Holland House, "Reformed," declared the eldest brother, "He is going to be the Laird of Skibo."

"Coley" climbed aboard the water wagon six months ago, and although the No sooner did the word set out the stairs of the stairs.

A Material Difference.

USHROOMS are delightfully palatable and healthful, yet some species of Toadstools so closely resemble the toothsome Mushroom as to Loose and her Milk Mildly Purgative by make it dangerous to experiment with uncertainties. And so it is taking a Cascaret at night before going with Castoria and its imitations. Keep the Castoria that bears the signature to bed. of Chas. H. Fletcher ever in your mind's eye as the Mushroom. And be as particular to remember the counterfeits, substitutes and "just as good" kind as the Toadstools. There may be a resemblance in the package, but the results obtained are so widely different as to make the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher the important feature when buying Casteria.

Why should not our preparation be superior to all other children's remedies? Have not eminent physicians from the Atlantic to the Pacific testified growing babe, and make them better to its perfection? Castoria that bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is the acme of chemical art as applied to a child's medicine.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chart Hillichise.
